

Eleonora Karpukhova

Grand Prize Winner: 18th Varallo Sessia International Piano Competition in Italy & Sigall International Piano Competition in Chile

ELEONORA KARPUKHOVA,

International Concert Pianist, flying in from Moscow, Russia:

EXCLUSIVE ENGAGEMENT

Saturday, January 26, 2019, 3:00 pm

Hartley Mansion, 2320 Rucker Avenue
Everett, WA 98201

Tickets: $25 adults/$20 Seniors & Students. Only 60 seats will be available. Please text (425) 623-3000 reply text with link for tickets. Reception following.

Rachmaninoff: Rachmaninoff:

- 10 preludes
op. 23 (complete)
 - 2 preludes,
op. 10, 11
 - 3 pieces. op. 57
- Morceaux de
Fantaisie
 - Elegie in E \flat minor
 - Prelude in C \sharp minor
 - Melody in E major
 - Polichinelle in F \sharp
minor
 - Serenade in B \flat
minor

Russian pianist Eleonora Karpukhova, winner of numerous international piano competitions and Associate Professor at the Tchaikovsky Moscow State Conservatoire was born in Kazan (Russia) and began her musical studies at the age of 5. In 2000, Eleonora graduated from the Moscow Conservatoire and has won numerous international competitions including the Citta di Senigallia International Competition in Italy, the Varallo Sessia International Competition in Italy and the 29th Dr. Luis Sigall International Piano Competition in Chile, the Grgosevich Competition in Zagreb, Croatia and the Jose Vianna da Motta Piano Competition in Lisbon, Portugal.

Eleonora Karpukhova performs regularly in Russia, Ukraine, France, Italy, Germany, Poland, Austria, Chile, Brazil and Portugal. She played numerous concerts with Orquestra Sinfonica de Chili, Orquestra Fundacao Gulbenkian, Polish Baltic Philharmonic orchestra, Orquestra Metropolitana, Orquestra de Algarve, Orquestra Sinfonica de Providencia. In 2013, Eleonora initiated and organized the Rachmaninov Fest music festival in Moscow to mark the 140th anniversary of the composer's birth. Eleonora has recorded two CDs of Rachmaninov's music, for both solo and two pianos. Solo CD album featuring complete Rachmaninov's Etudes-Tableaux released in 2014 by Classical Records. In 2017 a live recording of Eleonora performing Tchaikovsky's piano masterpieces was released in Moscow.